Re: Corpac v. Rubin & Rothman, LLC
Docket No.: 10-cv-4165
Our File No: 11817.00002

Dear Mr. Bromberg:

I am writing to you in connection with your representation of Patrick Sejour, objector to the proposed class settlement in the captioned matter.

A few weeks back we spoke and I raised the possibility of a separate settlement with your client. During the course of the call you stated that your client was not interested and that you had so advised my predecessor counsel, Robert Arlea, of such before my involvement.

The purpose of this letter is to set forth a definitive offer of settlement. My clients are prepared to pay Mr. Sejour the sum of $10,000.00 with reasonable attorney fees to be set by the court. This offer is made because it is our belief that the settlement pending before the Court is both generous to the class and likely for more than can be secured through litigation. In fact, it is our belief that if we were forced to litigate this case that we would prevail. The offer to allow the Court to set the fee award is intended to remove any conflict between the interests of your client and your own financial interest.

Your objection has delayed this settlement for many months and we would like to bring the case to a final complete conclusion. So there is no doubt, this offer is for the objection to be withdrawn by your client and for my client to be provided a full release.
